

Lou Flagg Historical Award

Prepared by ASHRAE Historical Committee

June 2010

Lou Flagg Historical Award

- Recognizes the vital role historians play in identifying and preserving the accomplishments of its members and the industry.

Lou Flagg Historical Award

- Recognizes the most outstanding history on a person, company, project, event, system or object invented or created that is of historic value or significantly contributed to the advancement of the HVAC&R industry .

Lou Flagg Historical Award

- Recipient is selected from nominations submitted to and judged by the Historical Committee.
- Nominations may be submitted yearly from each Region or by a member of the Historical Committee.
- Nominations must be received at ASHRAE Headquarters by Dec. 1st.

Lou Flagg Historical Award

- Judging Criteria:

Historical Significance

35 points

Innovation

25 points

Photographs

20 points

Quality of Presentation

20 points

Lou Flagg Historical Award

- Historical Significance:
 - History of a person, company, project, event, system or object invented or created
 - Significant contribution to the progress of HVAC&R industry
 - The relevance of the historical value or significance shall be clearly addressed.

Lou Flagg Historical Award

- Innovation:

- The depth to which the individual went, during the information gathering process, to locate and to identify the information should be emphasized.
- Project should describe the facts pertaining to the preparation of the article.

Lou Flagg Historical Award

- Photographs or duplicates of photos:
 - Utilize photos or illustrations in the submittal
 - Illustrations and photos should enhance the presentation
 - All photos should be identified (who, what, when, where and why)

NOTE: Do not submit original photographs.

Lou Flagg Historical Award

- Quality of Presentation:
 - Presentation should be logical, concise and effective with significant features clearly highlighted.
 - Simple to read system schematics or charts and easy-to-follow series of photos
 - A presentation in electronic format is required.

Lou Flagg Historical Award

- Presented annually at the Society's Annual Meeting.
- Winner receives free transportation to the Society's Annual Meeting.

